

EARTH DAY: Tuesday, April 22, 7 pm

Screening of the movie

Thin Ice: The Inside Story of Climate Science

Climate science has been under increasing attack. In response, geologist Simon Lamb took his camera to climate science colleagues around the world to find out what's really going on.

+ networking and information displays (5 – 7 pm)

at the South Whidbey High School Auditorium; free admission

Saturday, April 26

10 am Freeland TBD
2 pm N. Whidbey TBD

Climate Change Solutions

Presentation by Eileen Quigley, Director of Strategic Innovations at Climate Solutions.

Sponsor: League of Women Voters

Saturday, April 26, 9 am

Field Trip: Birding and Weed Watching!

at the Maxwellton Outdoor Classroom
Led by Janet Stein and Kim Shepard

Saturday, April 26 9 am – 12 noon

Invasive Species Removal from Saratoga Woods

Sponsors: Whidbey Camano Land Trust and Greening Congregations.

Friday, April 25, 6:30 pm Going Green

PBS documentary screening
Hosted by UUCWI

Saturday, April 19 11 am – 5 pm

Welcome the Whales Festival & Parade

1:30 pm Parade
(downtown Langley)

3:00 pm The Friendly Whales of San Ignacio Lagoon: Early Research

Lecture by Mike Bursk, Ocean Institute, Dana Point, CA

United Methodist Church in Langley

visit www.orcanetwork.org for more complete details.

Monday, April 14 through Tuesday, April 22

Nine Days of Prayer to Honor Creation

Each day's reflection and meditation focuses on Whidbey Island.

Visit whidbeyonday.org for information on how to pick up or download a copy.

Presented by the Greening Congregations:

Langley United Methodist
St. Augustine's Episcopal
St. Hubert Catholic
Unitarians of Whidbey Island
plus
WI Jewish Community
WI Friends Meeting
(Quakers)

ART EXHIBIT: Earth: Artists Reflect & Respond

on view April 5 – May 26 at the Bayview Cash Store

featuring Shirley Ashenbrenner, Jacob Bloom, Richard Evans, David Iles, Kathleen Otley, Diane Reardon, Anne Smidt, C.D. Streusel, Karran West, and Don Wodjenski.

More events and details at www.whidbeyonday.org

Science While Sipping

visit whidbeyonday.org for more Science while Sipping events

• Thursday, April 10, 6 pm, Greenbank Bar & Grille
Native Bees & Local Brews

• Friday, April 11, 5:30 pm, Ott & Murphy Tasting Room
Catastrophic Spills from Exxon Valdez to Deepwater Horizon with Dr. Nat Scholz, NOAA Scientist

• Thursday, April 17, 5 pm, Blooms Taste for Wine & Art
Noxious Weeds: What are they? Where are they? Why care?

Thursday, April 17, 5 pm, Gordon's on Blueberry Hill
The Future of Fish: Aquaculture or Wild Caught?

Whidbey's Earth and Ocean Month is organized by representatives from: Citizens Climate Lobby-Whidbey Chapter, Goosefoot, Orca Network, Service, Education & Adventure (SEA), South WhidbeyTilth, Whidbey ECO Network, and WSU Extension/Island County.

Wednesday, April 2, 7 pm

Creation Care and the Gospel: It's About People AND Trees!

Talk by Rev. Ed R. Brown
Pacific Rim Institute, Coupeville

Saturday, April 5, 1 pm

Family Bird Fun!

Wind & Tide Book Store, Oak Harbor
Presented by Whidbey Audubon Society

Saturday, April 5, 1 – 4 pm

Annual Peace Picture

at 1 pm sharp
followed by opening reception for the art show Earth: Artists Reflect & Respond.

Bayview Cash Store

Saturday, April 5, 9 am – 12 noon

Work Party at the Freeland Wetland

Sponsor: Whidbey Watershed Stewards

Thursday, April 10, 6:30 pm

A Brief History of the Salish Sea: How We Got to Where We're Going

Lecture with Elliott Menashe

Clinton Community Hall, Clinton

Sponsor: Friends of the Clinton Library

Saturday, April 12 12 – 3 pm

Scotch Broom Removal at Bayview Recycle Center

Sponsor: Island County
Noxious Weed Program

Sunday, April 13, 1 – 5 pm

Field Trip: Birds and Marine Mammals

meet in Oak Harbor;
various locations

Led by Steve Ellis,
Whidbey Audubon Society

Whidbey Waters

Are in Your Hands
WHIDBEY ECO NETWORK

SOUTH WHIDBEY
RECORD

our media partners

Whidbey Weekly

Puget Sound
Starts Here